BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the temple in question, which has been endowed both in cash & lands by Mr G. Venkataramaniah, Pleader, Bangalore, has an income of Rs 280/- per annum; & that it may be taken under Govt. managt.; & that if the proposal is approved, he will submit a scale of expenditure and names of Dharmadarsis.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

In G.O. no. 2161-4/Mug 465-15-4 dt 1-3-17 accepting an endowment of Rs 1000/- made by Mr. Venkataramaniah for the upkeep of the temple, it was observed that the question of taking over the management of the temple by Govt. should be the subject of a separate reference, after obtaining reliable information of the income and expenditure of the institution, and also that a scale of expenditure for adoption in the temple & a list of dharmadars is should also be subd for the approval of Govt.

V/ 2. Subsequently, in G.O no. 3113-6/Mis 243-20-8 & 5.3.21, an endowment of Rs 2000/- in 6 1/4% State Loan Bonds by Mr Venkataramaniah in favour of the said institution in lieu of Rs 1000/- originally endowed, was accepted.

3. The D.C. now reports that in addition to the interest of Rs 130/- on the Rs 2000 loan bonds, the income from the lands endowed to the temple by the donor is Rs 150/-, the total income being Rs 280. There appears to be a small error here. The interest at 6 1/4% on Rs 2000 is Rs 125/- and not Rs 130/- as stated by the D.C.

4. He recommends that the temple may be taken under Govt management & if that is approved, he says that he will send us a scale of expenditure & also a list of dharmadars is -

Sir,

With reference to Government order No.2164-4/Mis.465-15-4 of the 1st March 1917 accepting the deposit of Rs.1,000/- offered by Mr.G. Venkataramanya, Pleader, for the benefit of the Sri Kodandarama Swami Temple at Bidaragere in the Anekal Taluk, stating that the question of bringing under Government management the temple in question, should form the subject of a separate correspondence, I have the honor to state that subsequent to the above order, Mr.G.Venkataramanyyahas endowed a further sum of Rs.1,000/- for the same purpose and the full amount of Rs.2,000/- has been invested in 6½ % State Loan(Vide, Government order No.3113-6/Muz. 243-20-8 dated 3rd March 1921). The interest on this is Rs.130/-. Besides the above endowment in cash, Mr.G.Venkataramanyya has also endowed some lands, the annual income from which is estimated at Rs.150/-. Hence,the total income of the temple is Rs.280/- per annum.

In the above circumstances, I consider that the temple may be brought under Government management.

On receipt of Government orders sanctioning the proposal, a scale of receipts and expenditure and the names of Dharmadarsis will be reported.
